GSP Issue Topics for Regulation Development

The Sustainable Groundwater Management Act requires the formation of Groundwater Sustainability Agencies (GSAs) which must develop Groundwater Sustainability Plans (GSPs) in the Bulletin 118-defined groundwater basins or subbasins that were designated by DWR as medium or high priority. DWR has established a comprehensive multi-phased outreach approach to better understand issues and topics, as well as collection of information associated with the development of GSP regulations. Insights gained through the outreach process will build an informed regulation framework.
