

AGENDA

Senate Bill (SB) 13 and Groundwater Sustainability Agencies (GSAs):
 A Webinar for Local Agencies on the Legislative Changes to the Sustainable Groundwater Management Act (SGMA)

Date: November 12, 2015 from 10:00-11:30 AM

To access the webinar:

Registration URL: <https://attendee.gotowebinar.com/register/4091961535999086338>

Webinar ID: 148-698-395

United States (Toll-free): 1-866-901-6455

Phone Access Code: 797-672-617

Please note: A pin number is required to verbally participate on the webinar. Participants need to log into the Webinar before dialing the conference line to receive their phone pin.*

Meeting Purpose:

- To provide local agencies an overview of DWR’s implementation of the SB 13 legislative changes to SGMA
- To receive public questions and comments related to DWR’s implementation of these changes

1	Welcome, Agenda Review, and Guidance on How to Submit Questions and Comments	Tania Carlone, Facilitator – California State University Sacramento, Center for Collaborative Policy (CCP)
2	GSA Background and Overview <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What is a GSA? • Who can be a GSA? • GSA responsibilities • GSA formation • Questions for clarification 	Mark Nordberg, Senior Engineering Geologist, DWR, Sustainable Groundwater Management Program (SGMP) Tania Carlone, CCP
3	SB 13 Legislative Changes to SGMA <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • GSA formation • Notification to DWR • Overlapping & exceeding service boundaries • Potential for service area conflicts • Questions for clarification 	Mark Nordberg, DWR Tania Carlone, CCP
4	Current Status of GSAs & DWR’s Completeness Review Pursuant to SB13 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Questions for clarification 	Mark Nordberg, DWR Tania Carlone, CCP
5	Q&A Session	Mark Nordberg, DWR Tania Carlone, CCP
6	Closing Remarks and SGMP Resources for GSAs	Mark Nordberg, DWR

For more information, visit the DWR Sustainable Groundwater Management Program website at:
<http://water.ca.gov/groundwater/sgm/index.cfm>