

California Department of Water Resources

SB 1157 Benefits and Impacts Working Group

Kickoff Meeting

Monday, September 29, 2025, 1:00-4:00 PM

Open to the public but registration required:

https://csus.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_rA3y8lk6RcK-YIVu3fzUvg#/registration

AGENDA

Meeting Objectives: Kickoff the Working Group process to inform SB 1157 studies

- Introduce Working Group process and participants
- Gather Working Group feedback on study approach

1:00 Welcome and Agenda Review

Art Hinojosa, Manager, Division of Regional Assistance (DRA) – DWR

Bill Keene, Senior Facilitator – CSU Sacramento

1:15 DWR Team Introductions

Kyle Miller, Urban Unit Manager, Resilience and Efficiency (RAE) Section, DRA Water Use Efficiency Branch (WUE) – DWR

1:20 Working Group Member Introductions

Ariel Ambruster, Lead Facilitator – CSU Sacramento and Working Group Members

2:00 SB 1157 Background, Overview, and Requirements

Sabrina Cook, Ph.D., WUE RAE Section Manager – DWR

2:10 Study Organization, Working Group Role, and Staying Engaged

Kyle Miller

2:20 Break

2:30 Research Team Introductions and Background

Erik Porse, Ph.D., California Institute for Water Resources (CIWR) and Cooperative

Extension Director – University of California Agriculture and Natural Resources (UC ANR)

2:50 Study Approach

Presentation: Methods for Evaluating Benefits and Impacts of the Indoor Water Use Standard for Water Management, Affordability, and Wastewater Operations
Erik Porse and Research Team Members

Working Group Discussion: Provide feedback on Study Approach

3:55 Next Steps

Kyle Miller and CSU Sacramento Facilitation Team

4:00 Adjourn
