DESCRIPTION Please include item name, brand, and product number	% POSTCONSUMER	RECYCLED MATERIAL TYPE

All businesses shall certify in writing to the contracting officer or his or her representative the minimum percentage, if not exact percentage, of postconsumer material in the productions, materials, goods, or supplies offered or sold to the state regardless of whether the product meets the minimum content requirements specified in law (see page 2 for minimum content requirements). The certification shall be furnished under penalty of perjury. The certification shall be provided regardless of content, even if the product contains no recycled material. A state agency may waive the certification requirements if the percentage of postconsumer material in the products, materials, good or supplies can be verified in a written advertisement, including, but not limited to, a product label, a catalog, or manufacturer or vendor internet website.

Public Contract Code Sections 12200-12217, et seq. and 12153-12156, et seq.

I certify that the above information is true. I further certify that these environmental claims for recycled content regarding these products are consistent with the Federal Trade Commission's Environmental Marketing Guidelines in accordance with PCC 12404.

1. Postconsumer material comes from products that were bought by consumers, used, then recycled. For example: a newspaper that has been purchased and read, next recycled, and then used to make another product would be postconsumer material.

If the product does not fit into any of the product categories, enter "N/A". Common N/A products include wood products, natural textiles, aggregate, concrete, electronics such as computers, TV, software on a disk or CD, telephone.

2. Product category refers to one of the product categories listed below, into which the reportable purchase falls. For products made from multiple materials, choose the category that comprises most of the product by weight, or volume.

Note: For reuse or refurbished products, there are no minimum content requirements.
